Numb. 1914

The London Gazette.

COLLEGE of ARMS.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 20. to Monday March 24. 1683.

Warsaw, February 18.

OUR Letters from Cracow of the 12th Instant inform us, That the King intended to part from thence as yesterday for Niemirow, a place on the Frontiers of Podolia, to give the necessary Orders concerning the Siege of Caminiec, which his Majesty has resolved to undertake so soon as the Weather will permit it. That the new Hospodars of Moldavia and Walachia, were with the assistance of the Poles and the Cossacks established in their Governments, and that it was hoped the Transilvanians would follow their Example and put themselves under the Protection of the Crown of Poland. That the Conferences at Smolensko were like to have a very happy conclusion. And that the Ambassador which the Emperor is sending to the Czars of Moscovy, was expected there, having orders to see those Commissioners, and to open to them the Subject of his Embassy. That Count Teckeley had sent to acquaint the King of Poland that he had quitted the Siege of Ungwar; And to excuse the Hostilities which his Troops committed some time agone upon his Majesties Forces; but that the King had taken little notice thereof, declaring he did look upon the said Count as his Enemy, and had commanded his Troops to treat him as such.

Venice, March 4. By a Vessel arrived from Zant we have advice, that three Venetian Barques meeting with two Vessels belonging to the Pirates of St. Maur, they had taken one, in which was 40 Turks, and had forced the other ashore. From Dalmatia they write, that the Morlaques whose number encreases daily, continue their Incursions into the Turkish Territories from whence they returned for the most part with a great deal of Booty. Great preparations are making here for the War against the Turks, and we are assured the Republick besides their Naval Forces, will have an Army in Dalmatia. Prince Alexander d' Este General of the Horse of this State, brings a Body of Cavalry into their Service. And the Prince of Parma General of their Foot, raises 3000 men. From Rome they tell us, that the great care of the Pope is, to raise Moneys for the assistance of the Emperor and the King of Poland, and that he hath lately sent a very considerable supply to the latter.

Dantzick, March 8. We have Letters from Moscow, which tell us, that there appeared a great disposition in the Ministers of that Court to enter into a League with the Emperor and the King of Poland against the Turks, which the Swedish Envoy at Moscow did very much endeavour to confirm them in. From Cracow they write, that the King of Poland intended to part from thence towards the end of this Month, and to go to Leopol, or some other place towards the Frontiers of Podolia, to settle several affairs with relation to the Cossacks, as well as to view his Troops which are to be employed in the Siege of Caminiec.

Ratisbonne, March 8. The Dyet is taken up with the Difficulties arisen by the Count de Windisgratz pretending to the Quality of the Emperor's Principal Commissioner and to the Title of Excellency, which it's said according to antient Custom cannot be given but to one that is a Prince of the Empire. The Count de Crecy has presented a Memorial to the Dyet, wherein he communicates to them the Propositions which his Most Christian Majesty has made for the Determining the differences between him and the King of Spain by a Peace or a Truce.

Vienna, March 10. Our Letters from Presbourgh inform us, that several Towns of Hungary had sent their Deputies thither; and that the Count Budiani, the Count Draskowitz, and the Count Erdedi, who have quitted Count Teckeley's Interests, were likewise arrived there, and have taken a new Oath of Fidelity to the Emperor, and that it was not doubted but many others would follow their example. The Duke of Lorrain will return to Lintz about the 20th of this Month, where his Presence begins to be very necessary to prepare things for the next Campagne. From Gran they write that a Polander, who pretends to have been some time among the Turks, was arrived there, and reported, That the Turks do make their utmost Efforts to bring a very great Army into the Field, and that the Grand Signior at the perswasion of some of the Chief Bassa's, had declared he will command it in Person, which it was believed was only given out to content the Janisaries, who are very much dissatisfied.

Lintz, March 10. Count Wallastaine the Emperors Ambassador to the King of Poland, will part from hence in few days, that he may reach Cracow before the King of Poland leaves that place, which according to our last Letters from thence, his Majesty intended to do presently after Easter. Count Serini, General of the Elector of Bavaria's Troops, parted from hence the last week for Munick: We are assured that that Elector will have an Army of Twenty thousand Men in the Field this Summer, with which it's said will join the Troops of the Circles of Bavaria and Franconia. It is confirmed from Hungary

7698334

Hungary that the Counts de Humani and Bargotzi, have burnt several places belonging to Count Teckeley, in revenge of the ill treatment which some of their Relations have received from him. The Imperial Court will remove from hence about the latter end of this Month, or the beginning of the next to Crembs, which is about twelve miles from Vienna.

Cologne, March 14. The Deputies of the Elector of Trier and the Duke of Neuburg continue still here, and threaten this City with the Imperial Ban, in case they persist in their refusal to receive the Imperial Commission, but the Commonalty are obstinate. It is said that our Elector is going to draw his Troops together between Nuis and Rhinberg; and that the Fortifications of this last place are not only ordered to be repaired, but several new Works are to be added. We are told that an Army of 40 or 50 thousand Men will be formed on the Rhine, in pursuance of the Alliance concluded at Soest between the King of Denmark, the Elector of Brandenburg, and the Elector of Cologne, &c.

Hamburgh, March 10. The Count de Berka, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the Kings of Denmark and Sweden, has during his stay here, employed his Endeavors pursuant to the Commission he has from his Imperial Majesty to compose the Differences between the Magistrates and the Burghers of this City; but the latter have refused to yield to his Proposals. He has demanded of this City 100 thousand Crowns as a Contribution to the Emperor in the War he is now engaged in against the Turks, but has not yet received any answer upon it. The Heer Van Hairen the Dutch Ambassador is parted from hence on his journey for Sweden.

Plimouth, March 18. The Ships, which came into Ham Osre, with the late Easterly Winds, set Sail this day to the Eastward, among which was a Spanish Ship bound with Soldiers for Ostend.

Deal, March 20. The Asia, the Eagle, and the Syam are come into the Downes from the River, bound for the East-Indies. There is likewise in the Downes the Quaker Ketch bound for Virginia. This day passed through the Downes 10 or 12 Light Colliers from the West Country, bound for Newcastle. The Wind is now at N. W. Yesterday past by on the Back of the Goodwin the Spanish Ships, that came from Cowes in the Isle of Wight, having been joyned by two Men of War, sent from Ostend to meet them. They passed in sight of three French Privateers, but without giving one the other any disturbance, and are without doubt ere this time arrived at Ostend.

Deal, March 21. Yesterday in the afternoon the Wind veered to the S. W. and about three a Clock this morning came about again to the N. W. when there arose a very great Storm, the extream violence whereof lasted about an hour and half or two hours, during which time the Wind veered from the N. W. to the S. W. and above twenty Ships then in the Downes were forced to leave their Ankors and put to Sea. The Wind is come to N. E. and the East-India Ships and some other Merchant Ships are under sail.

Deal, March 22. The three East-India Ships which we told you in our last were under sail, came again yesterday in the afternoon to an Anchor in the Downes. This day at noon two of them sailed the second time, and the Eagle intends to follow them the next Tide. There are about 14 sail of Ships in the Downes outward-bound. The Wind at N. and by E.

MR. Edmond Halley who went from his House in Winchester-street on Wednesday the 5th Instant about One of the Clock, not having been yet heard of, otherwise than that it's thought he was seen that Evening towards Hogsden with two Men, the one a tall and the other a short man. The said Mr. Halley is a tall man of about Sixty years of age, having a Mole on his left Cheek, with a plain Band, a brown short Perriwig, and a broad brim'd Black Beaver, having a Black Cloth Suit on, his Breeches wide at Knees, and an Iron Gray Cloth Coat over it, and Black Worsted Stockings on. Whoever brings true notice of the said Mr. Halley to his Wife Mrs. Halley in the said Winchester-street, where he is, alive or dead, shall have One Hundred Pounds for a reward, which shall immediately be paid by her, or at a Goldsmiths.

THe Creditors of Sir Robert Viner are desired by him to meet at the Cock, lately called the Cardinals Cap-Tavern in Lumbard-street, on the 25th day of this Instant March at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, to consider of the best way for the Satisfaction of their Debts.

Advertisements.

☞ The Works of the Learned and Pious Author of the Whole Duty of Man, is now Published in a large Folio and a fair Character. Printed at the Theatre in Oxford, and in London by Roger Norton, and are to be sold by George Pawlett, at the Bible in Chancery-Lane.

☞ A Chronicle of the Kings of England, from the time of the Romans Government, unto the Death of King James. By Sir Richard Baker, Knight. Whereunto is added the Reign of King Charles the First, and the first Thirteen Years of His Sacred Majesty, King Charles the Second. Which Additions are Revised in this Eighth Impression, and freed from many Errors and Mistakes of the former Editions. Printed for H. Sawbridge at the Bible on Ludgate-Hill, Ben. Tooke at the Ship in St. Pauls Church-Yard, and T. Sawbridge at the Three Flower de Lys's in Little Britain.

☞ Lucian's Works, Translated from the Greek. By Ferrand Spence. The second Volume in Octavo. Printed for T. M and sold by William Benbridge at the Half-Moon in Huggins-Alley, Woodstreet, and at the Sun in the Poultry.

WHereas there has been lately discovered a way to cleanse Trefoile or Hopclover-seeds from their Husk and other ill seeds, &c. by means of which it is become much better for certain growing and profitable Crops; insomuch that some Lands not worth six shillings an Acre for Pasture, may be improved to the value of Thirty shillings per Acre: These are to certifie, That the Seeds so cleansed are to be Sold, with Bills of Direction more at large, shewing the advantages thereof by Mr. Tho Mottershed at the Cross-Keys in Lumbardstreet, and Mr. Edward Fuller at the Three Crowns and Naked Boy near the May-pole in the Strand, and not elsewhere in London. Twelve Pound will sow an Acre.

THese are to give Notice, That on the 15th of this Month there was seized at Nottingham the following Horses, supposed to be stolen, One Chesnut coloured Stone Horse, with the Grease fallen into his Heels; One whitish gray Gelding about seven years old, and 14 hands high; One Sorrel Mare with an Artificial Star in her Forehead about three inches long, and about 13 hands high, with a whisk Tail; And one little brown Nag. If any persons hath lost the above said Horses, let them repair to the Sheriff of Nottingham, and they may have them again.

Printed by Tho. Newcomb in the Savoy, 1683